Dear Frederico,

Dean's Letter of Commendation

I am writing to offer my congratulations on the outstanding level of performance that you have attained in your studies for Term 3 2010.

The Faculty of Arts, Business, Informatics and Education commends the members of its student community who achieve a high level of academic performance. For Term 3 2010, the criteria for students to receive the Letter of Commendation was to have attained a Weighted Grade Point Average of 6.5 or higher across two or more courses in the term.

I am very pleased to advise that based on your results in Term 3 2010, your academic performance places you in this high achieving category. I hope that you will be able to maintain your current high standard of academic performance in your future studies.

Again, congratulations on your achievement and best of luck with your future studies.

Yours sincerely

Professor Kevin Tickle PhD
